HAVE YOU CONSIDERED BEING A HOST FAMILY FOR AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT?

Hosting an international student is an exciting adventure and has many benefits including:

- The opportunity to share God's love right in your own home, impacting a student's life for eternity*
- Learning firsthand about another culture*
- Sharing American culture and family life*

As a host family, you open your heart and home to an international student, provide room and board, and invite the student to become a part of your family. Offering a loving family environment, you share your everyday lives with the student and help them adjust to American lifestyle, culture, and language.

As a host family, you will have the full support of the International Program Homestay Coordinator including essential tools and information to help you through the process including Host Family Orientation. Please prayerfully consider this amazing opportunity.

"Once Sangmi arrived, it was just like when we brought another child home from the hospital. There was plenty of love to go around, and she blended in and became part of our family." Vicki Gregg, SCA Parent hosting for the 8th year
